

HAD WIGGS ON THE RUN

Plattsburg Hit Burlington Pitcher Savagely.

WON GAME, EIGHT TO FOUR

The Again Tail-enders Didn't Do Much Except Chase the Ball as It Left the Plattsburgers' Bats.

Plattsburg, N. Y., July 27.—Besides being rapped hard by Plattsburg, Wiggs of Burlington was wild in yesterday's game and the visitors had little chance of winning the game. Among the ten hits secured off him, two were three-baggers by Cosgrave and one was a two-bagger by Kretschell. Lawson, who pitched the most of the game for the home team, also got two safe hits off his box rival. Burlington played a cleaner fielding game than Plattsburg, but too much stick work by the latter accounted for the victory of 8 to 4.

Up to the seventh inning the game was close and anybody's, but Plattsburg went in and rapped Wiggs to the limit, getting five hits and scoring as many runs. The score:

BASE BALL NOTES.

Burlington still hugs last place. This roadback of the Chicago Colts is doing some tall work. That was a fine performance of his to hold the Phillies down to three hits.—Boston Herald. Yer right.

Owing to a wrenched knee "Boots" McMahon will not be with the Giants when they go against Burlington on the latter's grounds this afternoon, but he hopes to get around by the last of the week.

Coombs, Burns and Smith is the order in which the Intercity twirlers will go into the box for the remainder of the week. Coombs against Burlington away from home, Burns against the same team at the local grounds Friday and Smith against Plattsburg on Saturday. Tomorrow's game will be called at 3:15.

Manager Arthur Daley came up from Montpelier yesterday afternoon to show Barro to the members of the Barre-Montpelier base ball team. It was the first time also that Barre enthusiasts had seen their representatives off the diamond, strange as it may seem. They were well pleased with what they saw of the men.

In the Rutland game Tuesday Burns did a remarkable performance. In the last six innings only eighteen batters faced him, and not a man reached first base. And according to the Rutland Herald: "The Hyphens went calmly on piling up the misery and having all the fun, while the crowd looked disconsolately on and prayed for any old thing to help out."

This is how the Burlington Free Press looks forward to today's game between the Intercity and Burlington: "Catcher Warner is back with the champions and the other end of the battery work will either be entrusted to Vickers or one of that bunch of recruits that Tommy Dowd has been rounding up in Pennsylvania. The knowing ones will not be surprised to see now men in the Burlington line-up this afternoon."

STICK WORK FELL OFF.

Burlington Not Batting the Ball So Well as a Whole.

The batting averages of the Burlington players published herewith, include the work of the men in all league games this season up to and including last Saturday, July 22, four weeks and a day. In the seven games since the averages were last compiled, a marked falling off in the stick work of every man is noted, Wiggs, Brennan and Simon

BARACAS DEFEATED.

Montpelier Ball Team Was Too Much for Them 6 to 4.

The Congregational Baracas base ball team was defeated by Estee's team from Montpelier at Intercity Park, yesterday afternoon by the score of 6 to 4, in spite of the fact that the Barre team outbatted their opponents. Fisher pitched a fine game for the Baracas, holding the Montpelierites down to five hits. Theriault was hit hard. The errors of the Baracas were costly. The teams played as follows:

Barre Baracas—Reed 2 b, Carswell 1 b, Dunnean 2 b, Ayer c, Smith s, Fisher p, Parker 1 f, Leland r f, Barclay c f.

Montpelier picked team—Davis c, Pitkin c f, Davidson 2 b, Estee 3 b, Brisbane 1 f, Scott 1 b, Wells s s, Parker r f, Theriault p.

ON LOWELL LAWRENCE'S TRAIL.

He Is Heard from at Rutland and Officers Will Follow Him.

Morrisville, July 27.—The mysterious disappearance of Lowell Lawrence, a young Morrisstown farmer, still remains unsolved, although a clue was obtained in the form of a letter written from Rutland by Lawrence to Mrs. F. J. Smalley. When Lawrence left he drove a small valued at $450, belonging to the Smalley estate. The letter was to assure Mrs. Smalley that he intended to pay for the team. It is thought that Lawrence drove from St. Johns, Que., to Rouses Point, N. Y., and from there to Rutland, as he was traced to St. Johns by Sheriff J. R. Parker, who is still on his trail. The Berwick house, Rutland, was communicated with by telephone last night and the clerk there did not know whether Lawrence had a team or not. He was instructed to put an officer on his track at once.

STOWE WILL CELEBRATE.

Citizens Planning an Observance of Old Home Week.

Stowe, July 26.—This town which observed Old Home Week every year since its establishment in Vermont will suitably observe the event this year. President C. L. McMahon of the Old Home Week association presided over a meeting of the citizens held in Memorial building Wednesday evening to consider plans for the observance. There was a good attendance and much interest shown. After considerable discussion of the different ways in which the day should be observed the meeting was adjourned until Friday evening when plans will be completed and committees appointed to arrange a programme for the day.

PEACE CONFERENCE.

Preparations for the Meeting Nearly Complete.

Washington, July 26.—Assistant Secretary of State Peirce, who is in charge of the arrangements for the entertainment of the peace envoys, returned to Washington from New Hampshire Monday. He announced that the arrangements for the plenipotentiaries are becoming rapidly complete. A contract will be made with a furniture house here for renting furniture at the sessions. In the equipment building at the Portsmouth navy yard, where the meetings will be held, one general counsel room has been provided, together with retiring rooms for each mission and rooms for the secretaries. This government will stand the cost of the furniture.

Laughing For a Living.

Dover, England, possesses a curious character, known locally as "Comrade," who laughs for a living. Armed with a cigar box for contributions, "Comrade" parades the principal streets and gives exhibitions of laughing.

Trial by Jury.

The principle of trial by jury was inaugurated in 403. Every accused person was to be tried only by his equals.

A Historic Flag.

The first American flag made of American materials was raised over the capitol at Washington on Feb. 24, 1890. All the previous flags had been made of English hanting, but this was of American make and given by General B. F. Butler.

Theater Tickets In Spain.

Theater goers in Spain can purchase a separate ticket for each act and often do not stay to see more than one act at a time. It is quite the usual thing to spend four nights over a four act play, seeing one act one night, the second act a few nights later, and so on.

DIVIDED THE HONORS

Champions and Tigers Take One Apiece.

TANNEHILL KNOCKED OUT

Detroit Got After Him in the First Inning but Young Saved the Game.—Boston Shut Out in Second Game.

Detroit, July 27.—The Champions and the Tigers broke even in their double-header yesterday afternoon, the former taking the first game easily by the score of eight to three, and the latter administering a whitewash in the second about as easily, the score being four to nothing.

Tannehill started to pitch in the first contest, but was knocked out of the box. Cy Young replaced him and held the game safe. Donovan had the small end of the result, getting bunched for 12 hits, to 10 off the Boston pitchers. Both teams started off with a rush, scoring three runs apiece in the first inning. Selbach walked and Parent sacrificed. Burkett walked, and then Collins hit for two bases, scoring Selbach. Then Stahl singled, and Burkett and Collins went in. Freeman fanned and Cooley gathered in Ferris' line drive. Tannehill lasted half an inning. With Cooley down, Schaefer singled to left, and McIntyre hit for three bases, scoring Schaefer. Parent and Freeman disposed of Crawford, and Love swatted for two bases, scoring McIntyre. Coughlin walked and Lindsay singled, sending Lowe in. That was enough for Tannehill and Young replaced him. Doran, the next man up, forced Lindsay at second.

The Champions scored three more in the fourth on Ferris' single, McIntyre's error, a pass to Criger, a three-bagger by Young and an error by Schaefer. Also one in the eighth on Collins' single, a sacrifice by Stahl, an out and Ferris' single. The final score came in the ninth on singles by Selbach, Parent and Collins.

BENNINGTON SORROWFUL.

Will Do Something in Memory of Great Ship Disaster.

Bennington July 27.—The people of this village feel very deeply the loss to the United States navy resulting from the disaster on the gunboat Bennington and in addition to the telegram of sympathy sent to Acting Secretary of the Navy Daring a meeting of citizens was called Wednesday evening to consider some proper acknowledgment of the sorrow the residents feel over the loss of their namesake. The meeting was presided over by Admiral Wells Laffin Field and was informal in its nature. It was not decided whether the expression of the citizens should be in the form of a monument, a relief fund or a memorial and a committee was appointed to formulate a plan and report to an adjourned meeting to be held August 2. The committee follows:

Judge Edward L. Bates, William G. Hawks, Daniel Robinson, Luman P. Norton, Walter H. Berry, Alexander J. Cooper, Orion M. Barber, L. P. Abbott, the Rev. Warren Morse.

OVER 600 NAMES.

A Big List of People Who Cannot Buy Liquor Legally in Burlington.

The steadily growing list of people to whom liquor cannot be legally sold in Burlington has reached large proportions. It now numbers 623, and the bartenders have to keep on the alert not to violate the law. Each saloon or licensed place is provided with a printed list. It includes the paupers, men who have been convicted of intoxication and men whose relatives have notified the commissioners that they do not desire liquor to be sold to them. A greater share of these are strangers to all the bartenders, of course, and include the forbidden customers of other license towns. If a saloon were authorized to sell to forbidden customers alone it would do a thriving business.

QUARANTINE AGAINST NEW ORLEANS

Fear Spread of Plague—Authorities Now Admit 36 Deaths and 150 Cases in Past Few Weeks.

New Orleans, July 27.—Frightened by the yellow fever here the entire states of Alabama, Mississippi and Texas and many cities of other southern states have quarantined against New Orleans. The state authorities of Louisiana it is believed, will do so, and then the city will be shut in from the world except by its outlets by water.

The ascertained extent of the fever, and the plan of campaign that will be waged to stamp out disease, have been made known for the first time since the infection came to the knowledge of the health authorities. According to official statements given by the state board of health, by the city board of health and by the former made known to United States health and marine hospital service, the following is the fever situation:

From July 13 to July 21, within the area from Barracks street to St. Ann, and from the river to Bohannon, 100 cases that may have been yellow fever and twenty deaths that may have been caused from the disease.

From July 21 to July 25 nine deaths known to have occurred from yellow fever, thirty-five cases declared to be yellow fever and thirteen cases supposed to have been or to be yellow fever.

Two more deaths occurred yesterday. In addition to these, prior to July 21, but not included in the estimated 100 cases, and including the several cases outside the original focus before that time, eight cases, of which five died.

This makes a total of 156 certain or suspected cases of fever from the beginning to July 25, and thirty-four deaths.

One death Tuesday was just behind Jackson Barracks, where the United States troops, according to orders received from Surgeon Maus, who arrived Monday, will remain in port until further orders.

In the report made to the state board of health, names, dates and places are given exactly and according to the daily distribution, with regard to all cases and deaths since July 21.

TWO BIG BREAKS.

Made Same Day in Connecticut and New York; Loot, $40,000.

New York, July 27.—A daring burglary was brought to light Tuesday when circulars describing $15,000 worth of stolen jewelry were sent out to all the pawnbrokers in New York. A wealthy New York business man, who has a country home in Connecticut and who sailed to Europe with his family last week, is said to have been the victim.

The Connecticut police have been unable to get any trace of the burglars or their plunder, and lists of the missing property have been scattered throughout the United States, with offers of a liberal reward. The most highly valued article stolen was a necklace of turquoise, which had been a family heirloom and which was also of great intrinsic value.

Another circular sent out by a detective agency makes public another robbery, amounting to $25,000, which, by a queer coincidence, occurred in a New York residence on the same day that the robbery was committed in Connecticut. The name of the loser has been withheld. Included in the loot was a necklace of 81 pearls with a cross suspended from it made of 11 pearls. Another necklace consists of 55 opals, graduated in size, with crystals intervening.

HIS CASE IS DARKER.

More Allegations Against F. Carlton of New York.

New York, July 27.—Inspector Cross of Brooklyn received word from the chief of Cincinnati yesterday that Frederick Carlton, now under two indictments for larceny in this city, at one time enlisted in the 6th infantry under the name of McCandless.

This verifies the statements made by the inspector's correspondent of Monday, who accused Carlton of being responsible for the death of an army comrade named Rush.

Carlton was arrested as Edward J. Martinez on March 27, 1900, in Cincinnati, as a fugitive from justice. He was accused by a young woman of trying to deceive her by means of a mock marriage. Inspector Cross said yesterday that he would have statements from other police chiefs throughout the country in the case before the end of the week.

The coroner's physician, who is performing the autopsy on the body of one of Carlton's wives, to learn if she was poisoned, was closeted for a while yesterday morning with Dist. Atty. Clarke, but he has made no formal report.

SPRINTED FOR THE SWAMP.

After He Had Told Officer His Name Was Smith.

Burlington, July 27.—Lewis Ploof, supposedly strong and healthy, was arraigned before Justice F. G. Webster yesterday on the charge of non-support of his wife and six children, none of the latter being very large. The complaint was brought about by the woman's making application to the city for aid. When Deputy Ravlin went to arrest Ploof, he happened to meet him on the street. He asked if his name was Ploof. The latter said no, his name was Smith. In a few minutes more Ploof was speeding like a deer toward the swamp. He was captured later without much trouble. He pleaded guilty to the charges against him and was fined $3 and costs of $7.20, the alternative sentence being 73 days in Rutland. Ploof did not know whether he could pay or not.

FARMER BREAKS HIS NECK.

Elijah Miller of West Brattleboro, Falls from Load of Hay.

Brattleboro, July 26.—Elijah Miller, of West Brattleboro, a farmer fell from a load of hay yesterday afternoon, and broke his neck. A physician was summoned, but Mr. Miller was dead before he arrived.

WILL REMAIN IN VERMONT

Though Early Treaty is Faulty, Late Treaties Hold.

VIEWHELD AT WASHINGTON

No Danger That Certain Vermont Towns Said to Be in Canada Will Be So—The Matter Explained.

Washington, D. C., July 27.—According to officials of the government surveys here, there is no possibility of Vermont losing part of her territory through the findings of the surveyors representing the United States and Canada, who have just completed the inspection of the boundary line between the two countries.

The survey was undertaken by a joint commission for the purpose of restoring the marks on the old boundary line that had been partly obliterated. The commission is without authority to deal with any question of territory.

The line of division between the states of New York and Vermont on one side and the British province of Canada on the other side was definitely fixed by treaty with Great Britain more than 60 years ago, when the old line of boundary, surveyed and marked by Valentine and Collins, previous to the year 1774, approximating the 45th degree of north latitude, was accepted in order to obey the arbitral decree of the King of the Netherlands, assuring Rouse's Point to the United States.

Since then new surveys have clearly developed the fact that the old line representing the 45th parallel was not accurately drawn and varied considerably. At only one point does it touch the parallel. This is at Lake Memphremagog, about 20 miles west of Richford, one of the towns which it has been reported may be lost to Vermont as a result of the recent survey.

Here the old boundary line dips down.
